MEMOIR OF AN IMAM

MOUSSA KONÉ

MOUSSA KONÉ

“One day I asked my father, a respected Imam, a question: ‘If, this evening, you or I died, would we go to heaven?’ He replied: ‘Son, I don’t know, and we cannot know before our deeds, good and evil, are weighed on the scale of deeds.’ Thus stirred by an ardent desire for certitude for the fate of my soul, I threw myself into a thorough study of the Koran, the result of which I recount in this book.”

Follow Moussa as he relates the turbulent and supernatural events that led to his meeting with Almighty God. His inspiring journey testifies to the extraordinary manner in which the Creator reveals Himself to each and every person who searches for Him sincerely and with all their heart.

Son and grandson of an imam, father to six children, Moussa Koné and his wife, Maïmouna, oversee their mission, La Bonne Voie, in Abidjan, Ivory Coast. Moussa is frequently asked to run workshops abroad.
